Tax hearing set April 8

OMAHA (UPI)—The Douglas County Board has set an April 8 hearing on a recommendation from County Assessor Joseph C Stolinski that Ak-Sar-Ben be placed on the tax rolls

While the hearing is being conducted the board will sit as the county board of equalization

State Sen Terry Carpenter of Scottsbluff had asked the board to notify him in advance of a hearing on Ak-Sar-Ben's tax exempt status

Carpenter requested the notice as chairman of the Legislative Council Tax Subcommittee assigned to study the tax-exempt status of Nebraska organizations

Small grain outlook good

LINCOLN (UPI)—Recent precipitation in nearly all parts of the state boosted the outlook for fall-sown small grains state-federal statistilians said Monday

Greening of these crops will be quite rapid when warmer weather arrives the state-federal Division of Agricultural Statistics said in its weekly crop report

The condition of fields in which crops have been planted this spring also showed improvement

The division said pastures and ranges got needed help from the precipitation and should now be able to begin normal growth

Revolt !

Husbands take notice The women are taking over Stand up and fight for your rights

Have you noticed how sweet the wifey cons you into going to the neighbors to play pinochle or bridge when you'd sooner stay home and watch Gunsmoke?

And how smooth the gal is when you want to trade cars and she seems to swing your thought to a much-needed washing machine, stove or spring coats for the family?

Well fellas, you're getting near the final gate when the wife has got you where she wants you

The trouble is it's happening everyday

I SAY Stay home and watch TV and order your coffee brought in to you on a tray go visit the neighbors but the menfolks should hop in the fliver and go downtown to look at used cars And as far as needing additional household furnishings or clothing cut that out by buying an FM radio for the car and a new set of golf clubs

And then there is the life of a court reporter the type of job done by John Matheson and Tom Dunbar, Falls City

The other day when John was tied up, the Falls Citian pitched in to help out He didn't know at the time he wasn't going to finish the job until 1 a m

Just for the heck of it, he telephoned John at that early hour to let him know the job was finished

Understand the Nebraska City Toastmasters club has been boycotted by the Nebraska City Bachelors Society for the Prevention of Marriage

There was a time when a sane, single man could go to a meeting in peace, but the Toastmasters slapped the screws to them The president, Tom Hemphill set the pace when he and Janet Livingston were married

Rich Stites remains about the only single fellow in the group, but soon now he will be getting hitched to Patsy Ann Kyle of Auburn, daughter of Mr and Mrs Harold J Kyle

How's about spending some radio money in the N-P?

'WHERE'S MY NEWSPAPER?'

When a newspaper is missing, more often than not, a man will say, "Where's my newspaper?" "My," not "the!" You've heard him say many times: "Now, my newspaper said . . . " "I read in my paper . . . "

A man's possessive about his newspaper. He takes pride in it. He gloats when his newspaper praises his favorite political candidate or sports team. Or, he groans when his newspaper differs with his choice of personalities or issues. He'll even write the editor when he feels strongly about a difference of opinion.

And, his wife feels just about the same. She looks forward to reading her pet features. Missing out on some ad or choice item of local news could "ruin" her shopping trip or leave her feeling left out during the chitchat over the bridge table.

Both men and women want their newspaper. In fact, they insist on it. They are sorely disappointed and disturbed when their newspaper isn't on the front step when they want it. Ask any carrier boy He can tell you, because he hears about it if a delivery is late or missed.

This loyalty to a favorite newspaper didn't just happen. It came about because the newspaper is localized to meet a particular want and fill a definite need.

And, because the newspaper is viewed as a necessary companion and source of information, it makes a big difference in the lives of people of all ages, of all faiths and political preferences, of all levels of income and education.
