

Young Nebraska City Civil Air Patrolman Larry Wiles holds personal items from Fred Gottschalk's suitcase. The items were found among the wreckage in the Tuesday night plane crash which claimed the lives of Gottschalk and his daughter, Carol.

The buck Ends here . . . .

By Ivan D. E. Beaumont

I had the yen to own a jeep for many years.

So, when "Butch" Wurtele traded for a 1948 model, we dickered and I drove the jitney home.

Since that time, the plywood top was removed, and a cloth top installed with the help of Bob Toler and Duane Hall. The jeep also got a coat of primer and two brushed coats of cactus green paint.

Then there was a new windshield and my "wall-to-wall" carpeting from an old rug.

Well, after all that fiddling around the jeep was ready.

It has two heaters and both are well appreciated.

+ + + + +

The night of the plane crash my Jolly Green Jitney was fired up and away we went. . . .up and down, back and forth.

For over an hour the little four-wheeler carried State Trooper Harold LeGrande, Deputy Sheriff Harold Johnson, Duane Hall, Don Mason and myself.

There were other passengers and not many complained beyond reason because of the ups and downs or the narrow places we crossed, but there was one passenger who trusted his feet more than he did the light jeep . . . .and I'm not so sure, but what I agreed with him.

+ + + + +

We were jeeping a field north of our home going up and down terraces, across grass waterways and where - have - you. There were times when the faithful jeep indicated she wanted to lie down on her side.

That was George Davis, who lives west of our home, said he wanted out. So George and Duane got out and walked the heavily wooded areas the Jolly Green Jitney couldn't penetrate.

+ + + + +

It would be telling. . . . .so I dasn't explain the deputy sheriff's remark about a "handle."

Nor can we print some of the comments from the passengers, who in all courtesy to the driver and the capability of the machine, were a bit uncomfortable jeeping over frozen ground in a cornfield.

There was some comfort. I had taken along two blankets. As it tured out, we didn't need them. . . .although the jeep passengers appreciated anything for a cushion.

I'm certain of one thing. Jeeps will go most anywhere.

We had to go into most of the "rough" places to look for a downed airplane and the Jolly Green Jitney came through in flying colors.

Land Bank to meet Feb. 17

The Lincoln Federal Land Bank Association will hold its annual stockholders meeting February 17, at the Hotel Cornhusker in Lincoln, according to Manager J. D. Berkeybile.

Berkeybile said the group will hear a report on the Association's progress during the past year and will elect three directors. Featured speakers will be Wilbur Erickson, Vice President and Treasurer of the Federal Land Bank of Omaha, and Ralph Raikes, Director of the Farm Credit Board of Omaha.

Registration will begin at 10:45 a.m. in the Hotel Cornhusker. A luncheon and entertainment will follow the business meeting.

Directors of the Association are Harvey C. Damrow, Roca, president; Clifford C. Cooper, Weeping Water, vice president; William L. Walker and Bernard H. Carlson, Lincoln; Ivan G. Althouse, Waverly; Walter C. Reimer, Syracuse; and Richard G. Brehm, Unadilla.

Extremists try to enter PTAs

CHICAGO (UPI)—Extremist groups are infiltrating Parents and Teachers Associations in 35 states in a "concentrated effort to take over our fre public school system," the national PTA president warned Wednesday

Mrs Jennelle Moorhead, leader of the 12-million-member National Congress of Parents and Teachers, said the infiltration created a "clear and present danger to freedom and democracy."

Rambler to cut

DETROIT (UPI) — American Motors Corp announced today it plans to trim its automotive production Jan. 25, resulting in an expected layoff of 1,800 workers at its Milwaukee plant and 800 at its Kenosha, Wis, works.
