Surgeon extracts his own appendix

MOSCOW (UPI)—A Russian physician has performed an appendectomy on himself in a submarine in the middle of the Pacific, the Communist party newspaper Pravda said today.

Dr. Alexei Shapovalov, serving on a Soviet Pacific fleet submarine, fell ill, and realized he had acute appendicitis. Pravda said Shapovalov also realized an operation had to be performed urgently and that he would have to do it himself.

The paper said the submarine submerged to ensure complete stillness for the doctor. He gave himself local anesthesia and then extracted his own appendix with the help of two sailors.

Pravda said the operation was successful and that Shapovalov returned safely to the Soviet Union.

Onassis leaves honeymoon again

NIDRION, Greece (UPI)—Shipping tycoon Aristotle Onassis commuted to Athens for business today, leaving his bride alone on their island of Skorpios for the third time in a two-week honeymoon.

To make the former Jacqueline Kennedy more uncomfortable, the weather on Skorpios turned cloudy and chilly again after three days of sunshine.

The 62-year-old multi-millionaire, who has just agreed with the Greek government on a huge investment program, flew to Athens in the morning for talks with his business associates. Aides said he planned to return to his private island in the late afternoon.

It was the third time Onassis made the 320-mile round trip since he married the U.S. Presidential widow in a Greek Orthodox rite Oct. 20.

Striking teachers reject another appeal

NEW YORK (UPI)—The city's striking union teachers Friday night rejected another appeal from Mayor John V. Lindsay to return to their jobs in the nation's largest school system while the issues in the strike are submitted to binding arbitration.

Albert Shanker, president of the United Federation of Teachers (UFT), called Lindsay's offer "the same warmed-over and unacceptable proposal that would continue to keep . . . in the school . . . those who have threatened violence."

Upsets mark Corner play

Unbeaten Fremont-Mills of Tabor fell from the ranks of the Corner Conference top team as New Market upset the 6-0 team 26-25 in a real thriller Friday night.

The loss puts Sidney back on top with Sidney to meet the F-M Knights later this month.

Essex upset Malvern in another dandy 13-6. Otherwise it was pretty much as figured, Farragut over Stanton 35-19, Hamburg moving into a tie for second with a 37-0 stomping of South Page and Sidney barely nipping Nishna Valley 7-0.

In two other games, Audubon won the Midwest Conference, title 31-6 over Denison and Lewis Central upset Mondaim West Harrison 27-19.

Apollo 7 crew gets U.S. honor

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (UPI)—President Johnson awarded medals to America's three Apollo 7 astronauts today and praised them for putting America on the threshhold of the moon.

The awards went to Walter M. "Wally" Schirra, Donn Eisele and Walt Cunningham, who flew from the Houston Space Flight Center to the LBJ Ranch to hold their first news conference since returning from their 11 day space voyage.

Deer tagged at Arbor Lodge park

Five deer were tagged Saturday morning by Ira Glasser at Arbor Lodge State Park, as the rifle season opened in eastern Nebraska.

Hunters were Donald Warner, Julian; Kenneth Crowner, Nebraska City; Griepenstroh of Syracuse; Loyd Hickey, Union and Carl Wademan, Nebraska City, who bagged the biggest an eight-point buck.

Federal funds to fight crime asked

LINCOLN (UPI) — The Governor's Crime Commission decided Friday to make immediate application for $39,200 in federal planning money for combating crime in Nebraska.

The money is part of a total $196,000 planning assistance package allocated to the state under the 1968 Safe Streets Act.

The commission will use the the money to begin initial work on the development of a statewide plan to put a halt to the growing crime rate and upgrade law enforcement training and criminal justice.

Under the provisions of the so-called "Omnibus Crime Bill" Nebraska has until July 1 of next year to complete the state plan. A preliminary plan must be submitted to the federal government by Dec. 19.

If the plan is approved by the Federal Justice Department, Nebraska will then be eligible to apply for additional federal dollars to put its programs into action.

Walter Weaver, newly appointed director of the commission, said the amount of "action" money Nebraska will receive is unknown at present. However, he said, at a recent meeting with federal authorities in Washington, D.C., he was led to believe it would be "considerably lower than authorized."

The Omnibus Crime Bill provides that local authorities be given 40 per cent of the total state allocation and the state to receive 60 per cent.

The buck Ends here . . . .

By Ivan D. E. Beaumont

Read a story the other day about the mystery of the missing captain of a ship.

The sea has many mysteries but it's no mystery when a passenger or sailor gets washed overboard. He's just plain had it. Sea rescue is fine, but durng a storm it's about like plucking bubbles in a dish pan.

+ + + + +

A few months ago I was walking down an aisle at a newspaper printing equipment show in Chicago and spotted an ex-Navy man who was my overseas partner for 34 months.

That night we swapped stories at a pub.

I had forgotten an experience we had about halfway between Tokyo and Honolulu one winter. Our ship headed into a storm and as typical Navy—the shortest distance between two points is a straight line—we ran smack dab into it.

My friend who now is production manager at the Amarillo Tex., daily newspaper, recalled the weird sound as the bow of the ship plunged into the sea and that "t-h-r-u-m-p" threw hundreds of gallons of cold salt water onto us and a third sailor. (Ex-chief Gordon Forsberg can give a better description.)

+ + + + +

We were about midships, below the superstructure.

The wave knocked all three of us to the steel deck and washed us to the port side. That was the day they didn't need to give any instruction in what a "lifeline" was on board ship.

+ + + + +

We were a bit bruised, shaken soaking wet and colder than blazes, but . . .alive.

Ironically, I had been topside during the storm to take pictures of the waves as they lashed the side of the ship. . .for some dumb reason or another.

And when it was all over. . . my trusted little camera was still with me. . and I've got the pictures today.

Welcome to Jerry and Bev Hall and to the retail business. The Halls have taken over the Sears catalog store in Nebraska City.

The Halls are a happy and well-liked family. They should do well in their new venture.

Jerry is also full of jokes. Stop in and ask him:

"Hi Jere, what's the word?"

The Osborne's from Talmage are including more of the Cook community in the Talmage Topics newspaper since the schools have merged. . .and last week the tabloid Topics published a 16 page newspaper, a compliment to the communities.

Mrs Arthur Whyte received a letter recently from Judge James Cowles, Grove, Okla., a member of the Class of 1903 at Nebraska City in which he said drunk drivers there get a $250 fine, $15 court costs and 10 days in jail.

The judge, at 84 years young, says it's time for someone younger to take over the bench.

If you will consider the hip, shoulder, leg and rib pads, plus the helmets and face masks, where do you slug a football player to hurt him?

That must be like kicking a board. . .with your bare foot.

I asked a few boys after the game what they thought about the scrap on the field. . .and they said it was the most fun they had all night.

It's doubtful the fight was disturbing to the parents seated at the sidelines at Parents Night. . . .'cause if anyone can stop a fight between boys, good ole' Mom can do it!

October rain is over normal

1968 PRECIPITATION

	Normal	1968
January	.90	.44
February	.98	.09
March	1.90	.26
April	2.42	2.58
May	3.83	3.65
June	5.31	1.26
July	3.35	4.03
August	4.21	3.87
September	3.24	2.64
October	2.18	5.18
	28.32	24.00

October excess—3 inches.
Ten - month deficiency—4.32 inches.

One big rain, on October 16 and 17, sent precipitation figures for the month soaring, giving the Nebraska City area the only substantial over - normal reading for any month this year.

Joseph Thissen, the Weather Bureau observer here, recorded 5.18 inches of rain last month at his river-front station. The big rain brought 3.65 inches at mid-month over a three-day period.

There was frost during the month, also, with 30 degrees recorded three times and 32 degrees twice. The high reading was 85 degrees on October 2 and 16.

Rainfall was recorded as follows:

October 1st, .02 of an inch; 5th, .03; 6th, .67; 9th, .78; 13th .02; 16th, .05; 17th, 3.46; 18th, .14; 28th, .01.

Two district judges in second district

One aspect of this year's election ballot may need an explanation to avoid any confusion. The law provides that the Second Judicial District of Nebraska, comprising of Sarpy, Cass and Otoe Counties, must have two District Judges.

Consequently, two District Judges are listed on the ballot but they are not running against each other as this district is administered by two judges. The voters are asked to decide if District Judge Victor H. Schmidt of Papillion and District Judge Walter H. Smith of Plattsmouth should be retained in office and continue as judges for this district.

The question to be decided by the voters is whether each of the incumbents has done an acceptable job and should remain in office. The Second Judicial District Bar Association, composed of attorneys in Sarpy, Cass and Otoe Counties, has endorsed both judges and has recommended a vote to retain both Judge Schmidt and Judge Smith.

Desert walker was near rescue

FURNACE CREEK, Calif. (UPI)—When Tom Padratzik died in the arid Funeral Mountains near Death Valley, he was only a 30 minute walk from certain rescue.

The body of the 23-year-old college student from Las Vegas, Nev., was found Friday in the Funeral range six miles north of this desert resort community.

Padratzik, who had been wandering in the desert since his private plane made a forced landing Sunday, was only a mile-and-a-half from a well-traveled highway.

His companion, Karen Zick, 21, who stumbled onto the same highway weak with hunger and thirst Wednesday, survived the ordeal. She is recovering in a Las Vegas hospital.
