The Buck Ends Here

By IVAN D.E. BEAUMONT

Hey, we had a grand time the other night!

We went to the Orange Bowl

Well, not really The Carl Peters family mailed us a special edition of the Orange Bowl printed by the Miami Herald

And in the paper were many pages of stories about the Huskers before the game, during and after they clobbered the Crimson Tide of Alabama 38-6. The colored pictures re-told the battle on the turf

Among the items

- Football fans said the game was the worse match in Orange Bowl history

— Rich Glover was the No 1 kingpin

— Jerry Tagge predicted Colorado as No 3 behind his team and No 2 Oklahoma (He was right)

— Alabama Coach Bear Bryant blamed himself for poor coaching against one of the greatest teams to play football

- Johnny The Jet Rodgers' sparkling 77-yard touchdown run flipped the morale of the Alabama team

A reporter said President Nixon could have telephoned congratulations to Bob Devaney at the half because Alabama didn't have a chance

- Alabama's leading statistics were give-aways by the Huskers in the second half

— Coach Devaney said before the game that Florida was such a pleasant place for a holiday that it was a shame to have to play a "damn ballgame"

Allen Beermann, Nebraska's secretary of state, laid it on the line at the Jaycee banquet the other night

In a message that had meaning, Mr Beermann, 32, told the Jaycees and guests the price of leadership and its necessity

He also read a few lines that we enjoyed and we'd like to share with you

"Who's to blame?"

We read in the papers and hear on the air
Of killing and stealing and crime everywhere
We sigh, and say, as we notice the trend,
"This young generation Where will it end?"

But can we be sure that it's their fault alone?
Are we less guilty, who place in their way,
Too many things that lead them astray?

Too many movies of passion and crime
Too many books not fit to read,
Too many evil things in what they hear said
Too many children encouraged to roam,
Too many parents who won't stay at home

Kids don't make the movies, they don't write the books
They don't paint gay pictures of gangsters and crooks
They don't make the liquor, they don't run the bars;
They don't make the laws, and they don't make the cars

They don't peddle the drugs that muddle the brain,
That 's all done by older folks, greedy for gain
Delinquent teenagers, oh, how we condemn
For the sins of the nation, and blame it on them

By the laws of the blameless, the Savior made known
Where is there among us to cast the first stone"
For in so many cases, it's sad, but it's true,
The title "Delinquent" fits older folks, too.

Whitehead Speedway making plans

Richard Whitehead, owner of the half mile dirt oval across the river bridge in Iowa, said he will open his fifth season in April Races will be held on Saturday nights as usual

Bill Jordan will again be the official starter Racing rule booklets will be available soon Whitehead said rules are worked out in the fall

Dirt will be hauled onto the track to build up corners, the chute will be resurfaced with soil, and plans are to paint the bleachers and modify the lights

"We're going to have something special for spectator racing fans," Whitehead said, "but don't put anything about it in the paper just yet"

Okay, Rich ole' buddy, we won't. But let's not fudge entirely and say it won't be like bingo, but it'll pay sports fans to attend Whitehead races.

Corwin against rewiew board

OMAHA, Neb (AP) — A former president of the National Association of Theater Owners, Sherrill C Corwin, said Friday he would "vigorously oppose" any attempt by a city to form a movie review board

Corwin is chairman of the Metropolitan Theaters Corp of Hollywood, Calif

Several months ago Omaha City Councilman John Ritums suggested a movie review board might discourage theaters from showing allegedly obscene films in the city

Corwin spoke at the installation of new officers in the Variety Club of Nebraska at Peony Park

Corwin said he felt the focus on sex in films "is getting a little boring for the public

"I deplore it if it is gratuitous, but if it is part of the story and handled properly, I believe most viewers will accept it," he said

NATO "subscribes to and vigorously supports the code and rating system of the Miton Picture Association of America," he said

"We're more concerned with violence than sex," Corwin said, adding "I think we will see more and more moving getting X ratings for violence, which hasn't been done before"

Variety Club is a 45-year-old social organization for show business people which supports charitable work for children

Last year the international organization's 39 chapters raised $11 million for various projects, Corwin said

Two eagles found dead

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP) — The discovery of two more eagle carcasses in Iowa has prompted a federal game agent to exclaim that the situation is now as if someone has "declared war on the birds"

Wesley Newcomb of Des Moines says two more eagles have been shot to death, bringing to six the number of eagles killed in recent months

Newcomb says the latest killings occurred in different extremities of the state — in eastern Iowa's Muscatine County and northern Iowa's Winnebago County

He said the carcass of a young golden eagle was found alongside a Muscatine County road Jan 10, and had been shot apparently by a shotgun while feeding on the remains of a dead deer

The Winnebago County incident, he said, involved a young bald eagle which was found around Thanksgiving Day near Forest City It appeared to have been shot by a small caliber bullet

Earlier eagle deaths reported by Newcomb included one adult and two young golden eagles, and one adult and one young bald eagle

The eagle population in Iowa stands at 116, according to statistics of the Iowa Conservation Commission

Killing eagles is a federal crime punishable by a $500 fine and six months in jail Iowa also has its own penalty—a $100 fine

The chairman of the board's public information subcommittee, Patrick Chaulk, also backed a bill introduced by Omaha Sen David Stahmer, LB1201, which would prohibit utilities from shutting off service during the winter to homes where there are aged, sick, disabled or children present

Chaulk said the board went on record against two other bills They were LB1218, raising lobbyists fees by $20 annually, and LB772, authorizing advisory committees to county welfare boards
